THE Danville News is sore, very sore, because the committee decided it is Lincoln county's time to furnish the democratic nominee for State Senator. It is a case of kicking against the pricks and the quicker the News quits it, the better. Messrs. Richardson and Embry shouldn't get mad and refuse to play simply because Boyle and Little Britain do not get everything they go after. A great county is Boyle and a good city is Danville, but they are not the only places on the map.

THE United States supreme court has decided that a telegraph operator and a fireman engaged by a railroad are "fellow-servants" and that the negligence of the former causing the death of the latter in the operation of trains is a risk the fireman assumed, and is not a ground for damages against the railroad. Justice White delivered a dissenting opinion, which was concurred in by Chief Justice Fuller and Justices Harlan and McKenna.

CHICAGO still holds the record for quick service in the matter of divorces. A woman filed suit alleging cruel treatment, the husband waived service, and in less than 36 minutes after her petition was filed she had been restored to the rights and privileges of single persons and had started up a correspondence through a matrimonial bureau with another view at marriage.

POLITICAL.

One of Senator Tom Platt's followers says the republican outlook in New York State is gloomy.

The California democratic convention endorsed William K. Hearst for the presidential nomination.

The platform of the Ohio republicans indorses Roosevelt and the "stand pat" policy on the tariff and other leading issues.

The democrats of Wisconsin, in convention at Milwaukee, indorsed Edward C. Wall for the presidential nomination.

The Maryland democrats are said to have about decided to allow Senator Gorman to name the delegates to the St. Louis convention with the understanding that the Senator heads the list.

Judge Saufley's Chances Good.

The Danville Advocate sizes up the situation in the appellate judge's race as follows:

The results of the Lexington Congressional convention brighten Judge Saufley's prospects for a seat in the court of appeals. A talk with several of Fayette county's leading politicians fully confirms the editor in his belief that Judge Saufley, from the uniqueness of the geographical arrangement of this judicial district and from the bitterness that exists between his two opponents, will either be the final arbiter or the winner of the judicial nomination.

If half of the political rumors that are afloat in Lexington are true there will be a fight to a finish when the big convention is called to order. That our readers may better understand the effect of these recent changes we will dwell for a moment on a few of the scenes that occurred at the Lexington convention. This convention was called for the purpose of nominating a democratic candidate for Congress in the Seventh district. In this district there are eight counties—Fayette, with 28 votes; Bourbon, 12 votes; Franklin, 14 votes; Henry, 11 votes; Oldham, 5 votes; Owen, 14 votes; Scott, 12 votes and Woodford 8 votes.

South Trimble, the Franklin county candidate, came to the convention with 39 votes pledged, 53 being required to elect. Among the 39 votes were the 11 votes of Henry county, the home of John D. Carroll, one of Judge Saufley's opponents. It is said that these votes were pledged to Trimble on condition that Franklin county should cast her vote for Carroll in the judicial race. Campbell Cantrell, a son of Judge Cantrell, Judge Saufley's other opponent, was also a candidate, having the vote of Scott county and part of that of Woodford at his control. The Fayette county candidate, Preston Kimball, controlled about 28 votes.

After adjournment that lasted for two days, an agreement was reached between Trimble, of Franklin, and Cantrell, of Scott, Scott county agreeing to vote for Trimble and Trimble in turn pledging Franklin's vote for Judge Cantrell in his race for the democratic nomination for the court of appeals. Thus Trimble, at the last moment, broke faith with both Henry and Owen counties and pledged his county to Cantrell, when these two counties had supported him during the entire convention. Fayette, seeing that her candidate was beaten by this deal, agreed to vote for Trimble on condition that a Fayette county man should have the nomination for Congress next time.

This shows too plainly the feeling that exists between the counties of the northern end of the judicial district. Henry, Owen, Oldham and the other counties that Mr. Carroll controls, would rather see Saufley nominated than Cantrell, because Cantrell took undue advantages of them the first time an opportunity presented itself. Franklin county is pledged to both Carroll and Cantrell. Fayette has but little love for Judge Cantrell, and as Carroll is the weakest candidate of the three, in order to defeat Cantrell she would probably cast her vote for Saufley. It is a settled fact that Judge Saufley will carry the whole of the southern portion of the district, while the northern portion will be divided between two candidates.

The fight in that section of the district will be bitter, and it is improbable that either of these candidates will withdraw. Unless some political agreement can be reached between Carroll and Cantrell, and such a thing is not likely to occur, the votes of Jessamine, Fayette and Woodford will decide the contest. Neither of these counties has a candidate. Scott county, the home of Judge Cantrell, has knifed Fayette county whenever an opportunity presented itself, so naturally the race in Fayette county will not be very exciting. A little hard work for Saufley would influence a good many votes. Woodford and Fayette have always fought on the same side, and it is more than probable that she could be induced to follow Fayette's lead.

If Judge Saufley's managers act quietly and quickly, our honored friend from Lincoln will be given an opportunity to show the State the ability that has ranked him as one of the ablest circuit judges in this part of the Commonwealth. Boyle county will gladly lead the procession.

Whooping Cough.

"In the Spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think it is the best remedy I have seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by W. N. Craig.

A careful study of the war news will show that Fort Arthur has been bottled up eight times, that it has fallen six times, and the last report has been still marching. Verily the war correspondent is a person of little versatility. —Lexington Democrat.

As the result of a split in the Wisconsin republicans convention at Madison, two conventions will be held and two tickets put in the field.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Robert B. Lancaster, one of the richest men in Lebanon, is dead.

Mrs. Sallie Grundy, the wealthiest woman in Washington county, is dead. Powell Cheek, of Danville, will be valedictorian of Central University's 1904 class.

An eight year-old son of Dan Faris, was killed at East Berestadt by a freight train.

James Young was given six years in penitentiary for killing Gen. Hill at Williamsburg over the school election.

Sarah E. Ambrose has been appointed postmaster at Rye, Whitley county, and Jesse H. Rapier at Tidal Wave, same county.

Albert Burton, charged with murdering Deputy Jailer Marvin Conover, his brother, Tom, and his mother and sister-in-law, charged with being accessories to the crime, were indicted by the grand jury of the Adair circuit court.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Lancaster Graded School, Prof. J. E. Mannix was unanimously re-elected principal for the next schoolastic year, making his third term. The remainder of the faculty will be selected two years hence.

J. B. Jones sold to Dr. J. B. Beck a harness horse for $135; to Boyle county parties a lot of 865 pound steers 4 to 10; to J. P. Ingram, of Wayne, a pair of four-year-old mare mules for $350; to J. H. Baughman & Co., some wheat at $1; to Phillips & Dudderar and L. C. Ewing 1,000 bales of mixed hay at $13.75 to $15.

HUBBLE.

J. F. Rigney is building an addition to his house.

A. P. Sloan has rented part of the Bright farm and is sowing it in stock peas and cane for feed.

A number of our young people heard the Baccalaureate sermon preached in Lancaster Sunday evening by Rev. E. W. McCorkle.

Corn has advanced to $3.25 in this community. D. N. Prewitt bought all the lambs in this vicinity at 6c and received them Tuesday. D. Spoonamore sold his black horse to Josh Jones for $100. James Bratton sold a plug horse to Jim Hamilton for $60.

Rev. O. M. Huey, of Stanford, will preach here Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Virgil McClure and daughter, of Lexington, were guests of his sister, Mrs. J. A. Hammond. Mrs. Sarah Eubanks is with relatives in Pulaski county. Mrs. Lou Plummer, of Goddard, is visiting her brother, James Ross, at this place. Misses Zora and Mabel Rankin, of Somerset, are with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. James Davis made a flying trip to Harrodsburg last week.

A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. O. B. VanMetre, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says: "I had a severe case of Bronchitis and for a year tried everything I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It is infallible for Croup, Whooping Cough, Grip, Pneumonia and Consumption. Try it. It is guaranteed by G. L. Penny, drug gist. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes, 50c, $1.00.

The three-year-old daughter of Claude Williams, near Flochville, was killed by her little brother, who secured a rifle lying on the kitchen table.

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Medical Society at Lexington is being attended by 500 physicians from over the State.

All grades of refined sugar have been advanced five cents on the 100 pounds.

EAGLE BIRD.

The mighty son of the great king eagle. Eagle Bird as a show stallion has but few equals. He won the $300 stake at Lexington, Ky., defeating some of the greatest horses that Kentucky has ever produced. Eagle Bird as a sire of good colored, high finished horses, is not surpassed. His colts are in demand and are selling for high prices, either for business or breeding purposes. Will make the present season at the stable of S. H. Owens, two miles west of Stanford on the Shelby City pike at the low price of $10 to insure a living colt. Parting with the mare forfeits the insurance.
JAS. H. WOODS,
Stanford, Ky.

NABOTH JR.

Naboth is a beautiful dark bay with heavy mane and tail, with good bone, plenty of style and finish and has extreme high action and if worked would step as fast as old Naboth, his sire. He is over 16 hands high, weighs 1,125 pounds and only 3 years-old this May. He is sired by the well-known Naboth. First dam by Messenger Chief, Jr., 2nd dam by Crit Davis, 3rd dam Thoroughbred. Naboth will make the season of 1904 at our stable in Stanford at the low price of $12.50 to insure a living colt. Money due when colt is foaled or mare parted with. Mares traded or removed from this county, forfeits the insurance and the money is due. Naboth is considered by the best horsemen to be the best horse in Kentucky to breed to for high-class harness horses. See him before you breed. J. R. BEAZLEY,
Stanford.

Black Prince.

Black Prince was sired by Emperor 27½ dam Imp Jenny June. Black Prince was sired by Shelby Travis, is 15½ hands high, black with white points and is a good individual in every respect.

Colonel Bright.

Sired by Prince Napoleon; 1st dam by Spanish Prince, 2nd dam by Cordover, 3rd by Ballard Jack. Colonel Bright was bred by T. B. Bright, of Boyle. He is 15½ hands high, black with white points and one of the best individuals in the country.

These jacks will make the present season at the J. F. Cook farm, 5 miles East of Stanford at $8 to insure a living colt. Money due when colt is foaled or when mare is traded or bred to other stock. J. C. KERR.

KING EAGLE.

King Eagle is 15 hands 3 inches high, dark bay, goes all the gamut with plenty of style and action, sired by Royal King.

1st dam by Eagle Bird; 2nd dam by Red Lion; 3rd dam by Harris Denmark, he by Miller's Denmark; 4th dam by Jim Bell, thoroughbred.

NOTE.—Royal King was sired by the great On Time and is a brother to the great Silver King and Allie G., the great show mare that sold for $1,000. King Eagle's 2nd dam is the dam of Mittie Boy, the great show mare that Matt Cohen won everywhere with in 1895 and sold for $500.

King Eagle will make the present season of 1904 at my stable 2½ miles west of Stanford on the Shelby City pike at the low price of $10 to insure a living colt. Will also stand the great mule and jennet Jack, Billy Keene, at $10 for mares and $20 for jennets to insure a living colt. Billy Keene was sired by the great Tom Keene. 1st dam by the imported Palermo, 2nd dam by Levi Hubble's Prince, the sire of Joe Blackburn and Brignolia. Billy Keene stands full 16 hands high, black with white points, and as a breeder he is unsurpassed as a mule or jennet Jack. His colts will show for themselves. Will also let that great young jack, Jim Keene, serve a few outside mares at $10 to insure living colts.

Mares traded, parted with or bred elsewhere forfeits the insurance and money becomes due at the time of such transaction. For further particulars call or address S. T. HARRIS,
Stanford, Ky.

DORSEY GOLDDUST 12052.

FULL BROTHER TO ESTELLE 2:19 1-4

Sired by Zikadi Goldust 4:00—by Goldust 1:50, and he by Vermont Morgan. (Dorsey Goldust's grand dam on his side was by the Imp. Arabian Stallion Zikadi.) His dam is Florence, by Golden Mingo Chief, a son of Gatt's Morgan, making him intensely inbred Morgan Stallion, descending from Justin Morgan on both sides. The best family of road horses ever known.

Dorsey Goldust is a dark dappled bay, full 16 hands and weighs 1,200 pounds; a proven and uniform breeder of high-class road and eastern horses, combining all the qualities for saddle and harness and are in demand at top prices. Both the champion saddle and combined gelding of the American Horse Shows of 1902-3. Jack O. Diamonds stands to his credit, 10 of his colts sold last year for $10,000 and $1,500 was refused for a walk-trail mare by him. His services are offered for less than any horse of his producing qualities in Kentucky. Will stand at my farm near Stanford at

French Coach Stallion.

QUASI NO. 2127.

In French Coach Stud Books of America, also in Republique Francaise, also in the National Exposition, Paris, 1889-8, competing with over 60 stallions in show ring.

Imported by W. H. Tichenor & Co., of Chicago, in 1898. Color bay; black points, small star, 10½ hands high, weighs in working order 1,350 pounds. Sired by the French Government Stallion, France, dam Charnante by Le Dor, and 2nd dam by Revolution (extended pedigree framed)—Quasi has never been beaten in the show ring. A true breeder of large, fine, high style and big acting colts and very kind to handle. I invite the attention of breeders to my colts by him to be seen on my farm, 30½ miles out of all kinds of maps.

Quasi will make the present season of 1904 at my farm, 3½ miles from Stanford on the Hustonville pike at $15 TO INSURE A COLT.

Money due when colt drops or mare parted with by breeder. Mares kept at 60c per week on grass; no responsibility for accidents or escapes. The best of careful handling given and no accidents so far.

Tom Keene, Jr.

Will make the season at same place at $8 to insure a colt. This jack is almost a counterpart of his sire and from his breeding should prove a high class mule jack. Old Tom Keene, his sire, had superior and bred on through his colts. His dam is a true Cleaver, 2nd by Giant, 3rd by West End, 4th by Great Western.

JOHN BRIGHT, JR., & CO.

PRESTON, NO. 922.

This premium saddle stallion of the world will make the season of 1904 at the stable of J. C. Bailey, on Old Lancaster Street, in Stanford, Ky.

Preston is a brown horse, 12 years old, 15½ hands high, a perfect model, with great style, action and speed.

Preston was sired by Washington No. 54, he by Cromwell No. 73, 1st dam Belle by Roderick; 2nd dam by a Denmark horse.

Preston has shown against and defeated all the great show horses of Kentucky, such as Kentucky Artist, owned by J. T. Crenshaw, of Lexington, Ky., and Montgomerie Chief, owned by Ball Bros. Why you should breed to Preston

1 Because he is the greatest show horse Kentucky ever produced

2 Because he is siring great show horses, such as Electra that was sold to Senator Vane for $2,000; Rebecca, that sold at New York Exchange to George Watson for $650; Miss Henrietta, owned by Gay Bros., that won more premiums in saddle and combined rings than any three-year-old out in 1903; a yearling colt sold to J. C. Cravins, of Illinois, for $500.

3 Because he is the only saddle stallion that ever sired a team of harness geldings that sold for $5,000.

4 Because he won the championship of the Louisville Horse Show in 1903, shown by Matt S. Cohen, of Richmond, Ky.

5 Because he has won more money in the show ring than
